

Prorated fees from 1 July 2011 until to 30 June 2012

Lawyers commencing or re-commencing practice during the practising fee year will pay fees pro-rated on a daily basis, and will be invoiced when their application has been approved.

Lawyers ceasing practice during the practising year will be refunded fees pro-rated on a daily basis.

The schedule below is intended as a guide to the practising fees that might be payable by a barrister or an employed barrister and solicitor depending on when the application is approved.

- Fees are calculated from when the application is approved or when the person is proposing to commence practice (if this is after the date the application is approved)
- Payment can be sent with the application
- If payment is not sent with the application then an invoice will be sent.

Prorated Inspectorate Fee and Lawyers Fidelity Fund Contribution until 30 June 2012

A barrister and solicitor commencing practising on own account as sole practitioner, partner in a law firm or as a director of an incorporated law firm is required to pay the Inspectorate fee and Lawyers Fidelity Fund contribution prior to commencing practise.

Practitioners who make an election under s317 and do not operate a trust account are not required to contribute to the Lawyers Fidelity Fund.
